

So Much Stuff!

Memorial Day

Where does one start with all that's going on?? I think that the most important thing is to recognize that this Monday coming up is Memorial Day, a "holiday" that deserves much more serious and sober attention than we usually give it.

We cannot say "Thank you" to those for whom this day was set aside. But we can express our thanks for their sacrifice by our own attitudes and the conduct of our lives.

Do we just assume our way of life, all the comforts and the freedom to move around and to say what we think, or to go into town to get what we want when we want? Do we realize what a privileged life we lead? Thank you, soldiers, for your sacrifice!

Do we teach our children about God's blessing on this country that resulted in it being the freest, richest, most powerful and therefore most able to help others around the world? Thank you, soldiers, for fighting to preserve our heritage and for your sacrifice.

Are we outraged as we see all of this slipping away due to the indifference of many and the aggressive efforts of the enemies of freedom to kill our culture and our nation? Thank you, soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines, for your sacrifice, and may it not be in vain!

Are we willing to make a little extra effort this coming Monday to go to the local cemetery for the Memorial Day commemoration? THANK YOU, SOLDIERS, FOR YOUR SACRIFICE, and thank you, veterans, too, especially those of you who live with pain and broken bodies as a result of your service!

True the Vote was organized in 2009, during the height of the Tea Party movement, and was one of the many conservative 501c3 organizations that was targeted for harassment by Lois Lerner's IRS. The years-long harassment muted the voices that might have shed light on the damage the Obama leftists would do to our nation, leading to his 8 year term and a major victory by the Deep State Leftists, who then made Donald Trump's life miserable for over four years. And now we have Obama v.2 in the Let's Go Brandon "presidency".

I highly recommend that you see this film, whether in a theater if they show it again, or buy the DVD, or find it online.

"The Price America is Paying for Rejecting God"

by Oliver North and David Goetsch

"... The actions of the secular left in pushing God out of the culture have resulted in tragic consequences. This is the message in our new book 'TRAGIC CONSEQUENCES: The Price America is Paying for Rejecting God and How to Reclaim the Culture for Christ' (discounted at faithfultext.com, also available wherever you buy books).

The cultural degradation wrought by the left includes rampant abortion, gun violence, mass shootings, human trafficking, child abuse, mob violence, pornography, censorship, drug and alcohol abuse, corruption, road rage, gutter politics, teen suicide, sideline rage, demise of the traditional family, and the list goes on.

These tragic consequences have a lot of Americans wondering, 'What is happening to our country?' The tragedies you see on the nightly news and read about in your morning newspaper are what happens in a country that rejects God. What you see all around you every day is what a Godless culture looks like. ...

Christians must accept at least some of the blame. Why? Because rather than stand up and fight back against those who are determined to make America a Godless nation, too many Christians and too many churches have meekly stood by and let it happen in the name of being 'seeker-friendly.'

Too many churches have become Sunday morning entertainment centers rather than preparing members to carry out the Great Commission. ...

So Much More Stuff to come next week. No more room this week. Hope to see ya then!

The wind blows where it wills, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with every one who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

Joshua the Tree lifts arms in prayer silhouetted by the red morning sky announcing a warning to sailors for the wind riseth up. I love the wind! You're not always sure where it's coming or going unless you check your weather app! It's like God's Spirit who nurtures and teaches us through holy whispers and nudges urging us to not turn away from the path that leads to life eternal. Listen to the wind while it speaks! Experience the beauty of the morning sun rising as our Saviour with healing light that warms a world of suffering and despair. Be still and experience the voice of God! This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it! Psalms 118:24

Bible Bites Devotionals

We Will Meet Him in the Air

When Jesus comes for us, He's not coming to earth. Hello? Our meeting place is not here. Not a beautiful coast and beach of Santa Monica or whatever. No, we are going to meet Jesus in the clouds. Okay. It goes like that. He comes halfway. We go halfway. "Oh, I don't know how to fly." You don't need to. You don't need to. This body is not gonna fly. Don't worry. It's not gonna fly. You need a new body. You need a body that will completely be different without a single cell from this one. This is a tent. ...

This is a lowly body. "Yeah, I've been working out." It is still lowly. Your body cannot enter the kingdom of God. This cannot inherit the kingdom of God, the Bible says. That's why He's going to give you a new one. And how fast can He make this body a new one? Boom, the twinkling of an eye. Boom! And that's when the laws of physics, gravity, and all of that will not even be affecting this new body. You're gonna be out of here. You're gonna meet Jesus in the air! ...

We, as Christians, have the answer to one of life's big questions – is this life all there is? The answer is clearly "no", but an even greater answer is that the best is yet to come. Where we are going Jesus described in John 14 as the Father's house in which are many mansions. Revelation 20 tells us this city is one of pure gold with gates of single pearls and foundations of precious stones. This is incredible information about the construct of where we are going, allowing our minds' eyes to formulate pictures of such a place.

We also need to remember that where we are going is a place where we will be different. We will and must be changed to inhabit the eternal city whose builder and maker is God. ...

We are currently living in a very painful season of human history: wars and rumors of war abound, good is called evil and evil good, the moral character of mankind has degraded significantly, divorce is brutalizing marriages, babies are aborted in the womb, cancer and disease are ravaging the bodies of many. God is belittled and disparaged, as are His people. It seems as though things could not get any worse. ...

The way to handle the pains and problems of this present age is by remembering our blessed hope. The hope that stems from Jesus' promise to come again and receive us unto Himself so that where He is we may be also could be fulfilled today.

Even so, come quickly Lord Jesus also in a special online streaming event on a recent Saturday. We will be getting DVD copies in the store soon.

What's the big deal? A non-profit organization called True the Vote used ingenious methods to prove beyond a doubt that the 2020 election was stolen, by producing hundreds of thousands of votes in the five battleground states. Non-profit organizations placed private ballot boxes all over those states (partly funded by Mark Zuckerberg of Facebook), and then mules were hired to pick up multiple ballots and stuff these drop boxes illegally. For more fascinating detail, you need to see the movie itself.

Both Dinesh D'Souza and True the Vote led by Catherine Engelbrecht are heroes on our side of the fight for the soul of this nation. Among their accomplishments are that both were targeted by the Obama administration for persecution. D'Souza actually spent time in prison for election fraud over a small issue that no one else has been prosecuted for, but his movies critical of Obama brought on this retaliation by the Obama people.
