Archaeologists Discover Red Pens Gospel Writers Used To Write Words of Christ

September 13, 2022 - BabylonBee.com

ISRAEL — Archaeologists, who are scientists who study old stuff, dug up an incredible find in the Holy Land earlier this week: a box of red pens purportedly used to write the words of Christ in the New Testament.

The box of red pens was partially used, likely by Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John, who would switch to the crimson-colored writing utensils from their usual black Bic pens whenever they were recording the exact words of Christ.

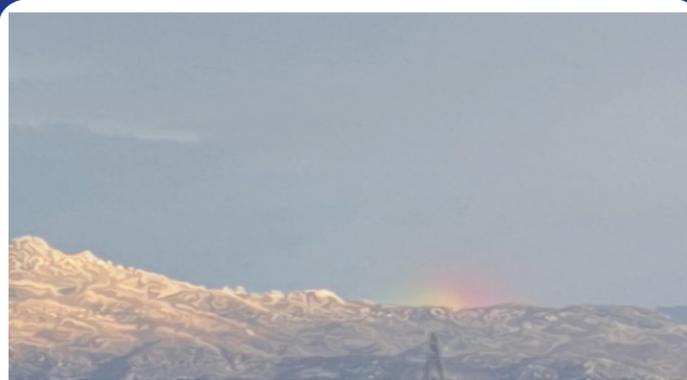

"Bible scholars have been searching for this for centuries," said head archaeologist Dr. Max Macon. "We knew that if the New

"To think that Luke or Matthew might have pulled out this box and started scrawling down Jesus's parables... it's pretty amazing." The red pen was also reportedly used by Paul's scribe to correct his grammar in the first draft of his "very angry and emotional" letter to the Corinthians. "Whenever Paul got either really upset or really worshipful, he'd toss all the grammar rules out and just bang out these super-long run-on sentences with prepositions at the end and everything. It's still the Word of God, of course, though."

Scholars are still on the hunt for the box of black pens used for the narrative, introduction, maps, study notes, table of contents, and page numbers, though there is division over whether the person who finds it gets to keep it or if it "belongs in a museum."

Pilgrims Travelling to the Celestial City

Joyce Christoffel, who at half my Baby Elephant size is my "little big sister" since she is 3 or 4 years older than I. I am her big little sister. Often she texts me inspirational thoughts, and we exchange pictures of our beautiful desert.

The Hill of Difficulty to the Celestial City...and narrow is the path to the summit off of Summit Road! . . . The Celestial City is just over there to the right! Choose the narrow path! There may be challenges and temptations along the way but keep the eyes of your heart heavenward toward the glorious light shining from the City of God! (Joyce)

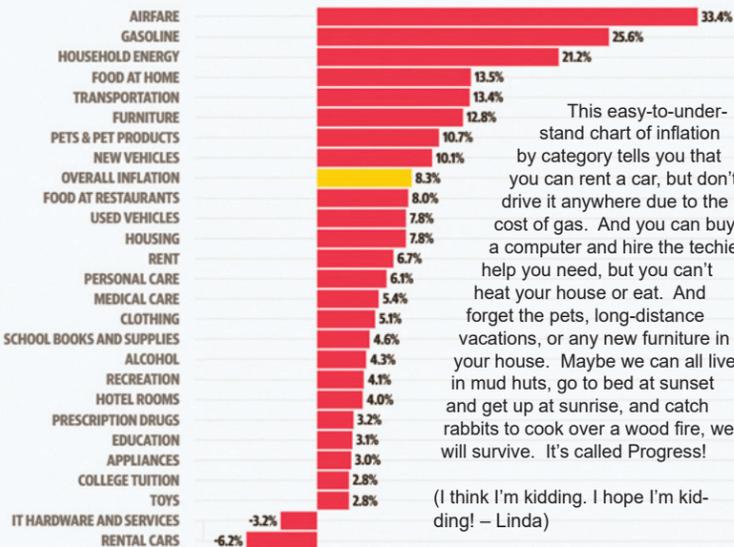

John Bunyan, in the original Pilgrim's Progress, called Heaven the "Celestial City". If the Pilgrims were able to listen and obey, keep looking up to God, and stay on the narrow path, that's where they would end up. In Babylon Bee's "Postmodern Pilgrim's Progress", Heaven's name was the "Golden City". The pilgrims could often see its glow on the horizon and had to endure the trials and tribulations in their way in order to arrive there at the end. (LG, picture by Joyce)

WHERE INFLATION IS... AND ISN'T

12-month change in the price of:

From Yahoo Finance 9/13/2022.

This easy-to-understand chart of inflation by category tells you that you can rent a car, but don't drive it anywhere due to the cost of gas. And you can buy a computer and hire the techie help you need, but you can't heat your house or eat. And forget the pets, long-distance vacations, or any new furniture in your house. Maybe we can all live in mud huts, go to bed at sunset and get up at sunrise, and catch rabbits to cook over a wood fire, we will survive. It's called Progress!

Just Keep Looking Up!!! (Joyce)

I Peter 5:7 "Casting all your cares upon Him because He cares for you!" Likewise, cast your nets upon the seas of life and the Lord will fill those nets to overflowing with His blessings! Some blessings may be specifically for you and some may be for others on the same path you travel. Remember! Matthew 6:33 says to "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and everything else will be added to you!" We don't even know what is best to mold and shape us as we reach the shining light of His glory. So! Step into the space of God's grace this day and everyday to come as long as there is breath and the gift of air to breathe! We are just passing by on the difficult path. Look at the beauty of nature all about as you travel on that path. Notice the wild desert flowers! They don't worry at all about how to dress but God has arrayed them with such magnificence and perfection! Keep your eyes heavenward always! He is coming sooner than we can think or imagine! Just keep looking up! We don't know when but one thing we know is... "This is the day that the Lord has made. We will rejoice and be glad in it!" Psalms 118:24 So, "Walk in the light as He is in the light!" I John 1:7

Have a blessed day! and don't worry! be happy!
